

Advance Displays In the Ready-to- Wear Department

For several days, advance shipments of the new spring Coat Suits, Spring Wraps and Silk Dresses which our buyer purchased in New York during the last three weeks, have been constantly arriving. Most of them have already been opened and we will have them all on display when you come down tomorrow. It's safe to say you will agree with our verdict that these are the daintiest and most desirable garments we have shown in many a day.

We merely wish to remind you of the Rudy policy of buying many exclusive patterns. You had best get yours now while the assortment is most varied.

Your Complexion

Your complexion will show at once the beneficial influence of this delightful cream, for it soothes and heals the roughened skin like magic. Its anti-septic components soften, beautify and whiten the complexion, no matter how much damage the wind has done.

Peroxigen Face Cream

Is rightly classed as a necessity on the dressing table of many a refined woman, for it is a non-greasy preparation which is readily absorbed by the pores.

Woman's Club.

The meeting of the Woman's club yesterday afternoon was a prolonged session, as much business was before the body in addition to the annual election. There was no open meeting of the club but the hospitality committee served tea and wafers during the afternoon.

Mrs. James A. Rudy was unanimously re-elected to the office of president, a just recognition of Mrs. Rudy's splendid executive ability and wise rule as president since the club's organization. Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips was elected first vice-president and Mrs. John Q. Taylor, recording secretary. Both Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Taylor are members of the executive board of the club. Mrs. Phillips being the recording secretary and Mrs. Taylor chairman of Civics. They will not assume their new offices until next October.

It was decided to accept the proposition of the Constance Balfour Concert company, to give an entertainment here on Wednesday night at the Kentucky theater under the auspices of the club. The company is quite a notable one and consists of Henri la Bonté, tenor; Constance Balfour, soprano, a celebrated Bohemian violinist and a pianist.

The Educational department assumed the responsibility of the "Sewing School" to be inaugurated in the city school. As a trial one building only will be taken and two hours one afternoon each week will be given to the work. It is possible that either the Washington or the Jefferson will be the building selected.

The establishment of the Tuberculosis camp was discussed and the club will assist in the work through the medium of the Civics and Philanthropic department.

Two copies of a book on "Native Trees of Kentucky," edited by Mrs. Marion Maury, of Louisville, was presented to the club and the club donated one copy to the Jefferson school as all the public libraries in Kentucky will be given copies.

Mrs. Eva J. Washburn and Miss Emma Acker were elected to membership in the club.

Kalosophic Club Officers.

The Kalosophic club held its annual open meeting this morning at the Woman's club building. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, president; Mrs. Andrew Campbell, vice president; Mrs. David Koger, secretary and treasurer. It was an entire change in the official personnel. The two-year time limit having expired. The new officers will go in next October. Miss Sinnott was the charter president of the club and a most capable executive.

The club decided to spend two years in the study of France, and the program committee for next year is: Mrs. W. F. Bradshaw, Jr., chairman; Miss Ethel Morrow, Mrs. Vernon Bythe, Miss Lula Reed.

There was no program this morning beyond a discussion of current topics by the club, and the business features.

Mr. J. M. McCandless and R. M. Hogan left yesterday for Apalachicola, Fla., on business.

Mr. Bassett Elgin, of Madisonville, will arrive this evening on a visit to the family of Mr. W. M. Shaw, of Fountain avenue.

SHE WAS ALMOST CRAZY

Pitiful Tale of Rachel E. Mercer, With a Happy Ending—Due to Cardui, the Woman's Tonic.

Herford, W. Va.—"For about four years," writes Rachel E. Mercer of this place, "I had suffered from female troubles.

"I would have the headache, for a week at a time, until I would be nearly crazy. I had fainting spells and pains in my side. In fact, I was not able to work at all.

"A neighbor recommended Cardui, so I tried it and the first bottle helped me. I continued its use, and now I never suffer with the headache any more.

"I know that Cardui will help every suffering woman. It has done more for me than any medicine I ever took."

While of especial benefit to women suffering from female ailments, Cardui may also be taken by all women, for general weakness, lassitude and debility.

It's action is that of a real tonic, more especially adaptable to women, and its building, strengthening action is so positive that good results are often noticed, as in the case of Miss Rachel Mercer, after taking the first bottle.
